

Miran Marš, internacional IGP judge for Utility & Tracking Dogs and show judge FCI 02/ Rottweiler.

I was born in 1967 in Celje, Slovenia. I am working in cynology for over 30 years as instructor, track layer and helper. I am international judge for utility dogs since 2000 and international judge for rottweilers since 2001. I'm president of the Commission for utility dogs at the Cynological Association of Slovenia and an active member of our local club. I was also two terms as the president of the Slovenian Rottweiler club. I am also a member of Slovenian breeding commission for Rottweilers. I was a participating IPO and IFR World Championship for Utility Dogs. Currently I'm preparing my dog for higher exams.
